P R O C E E D I N G S

(Audio begins mid-sentence)

THE COURT: -- number 12-12020, here in connection with a dispute concerning -- or, well, a dispute arising in connection with the FGIC 9019 settlement proceeding; concerns discovery from FGIC and Lazard regarding documents or information that FGIC asserts is protected by the mediation privilege.

Mr. Kerr?

MR. KERR: Your Honor, Charles Kerr of Morrison & Foerster, on behalf of the debtors. Let me just frame the issue. We're here on a request by FGIC to -- for an order approving the production of a specific document under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(4)(C) and Bankruptcy Rule 1914(c), in light of the confidentiality provisions in this Court's order appointing mediator, dated December 26, 2012; that's docket number 2519. Your Honor previously directed that any 26(b)(4)(C) information be turned over. That document was turned over yesterday during Mr. Pfeiffer's deposition. And I'll let Mr. Sidman address that issue.

One issue I'd just like to note before I sit down, Your Honor: In the objectors' letter that they sent to Your Honor yesterday, they -- at the very end of the letter, they -- as Your Honor noted, they wrote and made a separate request that they be allowed to take an additional fact witness of

1 Lazard. The debtor objects to that. Under this Court's 2 scheduling order, the Court had directed that the objectors 3 could take six fact depositions, and that deposition -- that 4 fact discovery had to be completed by July 17, 2013. They in 5 fact took six fact depositions. The request for Lazard came up 6 yesterday after the time period for fact discovery had been 7 completed. So I just want to make our position --

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 MR. KERR: -- clear on that, on the record.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 Mr. Sidman?

12 MR. SIDMAN: Good morning, Your Honor. Howard Sidman, 13 Jones Day, for FGIC. I just want to give you a little bit of 14 background here, just two minutes, to sort of explain why we're 15 here and what we want. During the mediation process, FGIC 16 created a document that analyzed the commutation proposal to -- 17 in order to help evaluate that proposal. The -- that 18 information that FGIC created was then provided to the 19 trustees. The trustees then utilized that information and, now
20 clear that they're Trustees' expert, utilized that information 21 in valuating the merits of the commutation proposal and the 22 settlement agreement generally. FGIC withheld that document
23 from production because it was created by FGIC in connection 24 with the mediation, and we put it on our privilege log and we 25 believe it was -- and we still believe it is covered by the

1 mediation order issued by this Court.

2 Following Your Honor's direction at the -- it was the 3 July 17th hearing in this case -- to produce anything that Duff 4 & Phelps relied upon in its analysis, in its report, the 5 trustees, with FGIC's consent, reached out to counsel for the 6 investor objectors -- the objectors generally -- and tried to 7 enter into a stipulation whereby they could -- they, the 8 trustees, could produce this document that Duff & Phelps relied 9 upon, without violation or any waiver of the mediation -- the 10 confidentiality provisions in the mediation order.

11 We thought it was a relatively straightforward request 12 that would both protect our rights and obligations under the 13 order but allow them to review the document, inconsistent with 14 Your Honor's order. They didn't respond for a couple days.
15 The deposition of Mr. Pfeiffer was yesterday, so on -- I think 16 it was -- sorry, the days are confusing me now -- but I think 17 Tuesday I finally reached out and called counsel for the 18 objectors, both counsel at Willkie Farr and McKool Smith, and 19 asked them why we can't get this issue resolved. We were 20 unable to resolve the issue, so then we -- I guess it was 21 Monday evening -- Tuesday --

22 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Tuesday.

23 MR. SIDMAN: Tuesday evening --

24 Thank you.

25 Been a lot -- it's been a crazy few days. -- but

1 Tuesday evening, contacted the Court to see if we could get 2 this issue resolved via court order, because the mediation 3 order specifically says that any such deviations from -- 4 paraphrasing -- any such sort of deviations from the 5 mediation -- the confidentiality provisions in the mediation 6 order should be authorized by the Court. So we thought that 7 was an appropriate way to handle this dispute.

8 We sent the letter to Your Honor I guess around 5 p.m.
9 on Tuesday evening. The deposition then proceeded with 10 Mr. Pfeiffer yesterday. During the course of the deposition, 11 it became clear to us that Mr. Pfeiffer not only -- and Duff & 12 Phelps, not only utilized this information in connection with 13 preparing its internal analysis to the trustees, but it also -- 14 Mr. Pfeiffer also utilized this information, preparing his 15 report that he filed on July 19th in this case. When it became 16 clear to us that that's what happened, we then provided the 17 document to the objectors, for use at the deposition. The 18 document has been provided to the objectors.

19 THE COURT: Let me ask you this, Mr. Sidman --

20 MR. SIDMAN: Yeah.

21 THE COURT: -- and it may be that one of the other 22 counsel needs to address this issue: Is this the only analysis
23 prepared by or on behalf of FGIC, that was provided to Duff & 24 Phelps?

25 MR. SIDMAN: Your Honor, from my perspective, this is

1 the only document that I'm aware of.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. SIDMAN: And so the reason why we're here now is 4 just because --

5 THE COURT: Oh, because Ms. Eaton's letter to the 6 Court suggests there are other documents as well --

7 MR. SIDMAN: Uh-huh.

8 THE COURT: -- and -- but we'll come to that. I want 9 all -- each of the counsel to address that and specifically 10 what Mr. Pfeiffer may have said in his deposition, in that 11 regard.

12 MR. SIDMAN: And I can tell you I was at 13 Mr. Pfeiffer's deposition, and I don't believe he identified 14 any other document that was provided -- was prepared by FGIC, 15 that he relied upon.

16 So here we are. We've produced the document. We just 17 don't want to have that production of the document be deemed a 18 violation of the confidentiality provisions of the mediation
19 order or some kind of broader waiver of the confidentiality
20 provisions of the mediation order. So that's the limited -- 21 very limited request we're seeking here, Your Honor, to protect 22 ourselves --

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 MR. SIDMAN: -- basically.

25 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Sidman.

1 MR. SIDMAN: Yeah, thank you, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Let me hear from the -- I want to hear --
3 well, I'll give you a -- I want to hear from the FGIC trustee's
4 counsel. I don't know; Mr. Johnson, are you going to address 5 this?

6 MR. JOHNSON: Good morning, Your Honor. Michael 7 Johnson from Alston & Bird, on behalf of Wells Fargo. And of 8 course, I was the signatory on a letter that was sent to Your 9 Honor in accordance with Your Honor's directive yesterday 10 afternoon.

11 I agree with everything that Mr. Sidman has indicated.

12 THE COURT: Let me ask this very specifically.

13 MR. JOHNSON: Sure.

14 THE COURT: In connection with forming his opinion, 15 did Mr. Pfeiffer consider -- I'm using the word "consider", not 16 "rely" -- did he consider any documents prepared by or on 17 behalf of FGIC other than the commutation breakout that has not 18 been produced?

19 MR. JOHNSON: That has not been produced --

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 MR. JOHNSON: -- no. To be clear, Your Honor, there 22 are other documents that he relied on, but they are public 23 documents.

24 THE COURT: Yeah. I --

25 MR. JOHNSON: And of course they've been produced.

1 THE COURT: This is what I want to be -- because 2 Ms. Eaton's letter suggests -- and this is what I want some 3 clarity about -- that in the course of the deposition, 4 Mr. Pfeiffer testified that there were other documents -- and 5 I'm going to broaden this a little bit -- either documents or 6 information provided by FGIC, that has not been disclosed, that 7 he considered it in preparing his -- informing his expert 8 opinions, because the Rules talk about considering rather than 9 relying upon, and that's why I want to draw that -- I want to 10 be careful in drawing that distinction.

11 MR. JOHNSON: Correct, Your Honor. The trustees have 12 always treated Rule 26(a)(2)(B), which has the documents --

13 THE COURT: Right.

14 MR. JOHNSON: -- consider -- or data considered by -- 15 as applicable here. We turned over everything that was 16 considered by Duff, except for that one document which was 17 turned over yesterday. And the only reason that document was 18 not turned over, Your Honor, was because of the mediation order
19 and concerns that FGIC expressed to us that turning it over 20 could violate it. But now, Your Honor, as of yesterday, there 21 is nothing that Mr. Pfeiffer or Duff considered that has not 22 been turned over.

23 THE COURT: So what I -- Ms. Eaton attached to her 24 letter, as Exhibit A, the Pfeiffer expert report. And 25 attachment 2 to the expert report has a heading, "List of

1 Documents Considered". And I did not see the commutation
2 breakout identifi -- I may have missed it; it's a long --
3 and -- but I looked for it this morning.

4 I was in Washington for the last two days; that's why 5 you didn't get a hearing any sooner than that.

6 I looked for it; I didn't see it there. It is correct
7 also that on page 7 of the report, in paragraph 11, it says, 8 quote, "I reserve the right to update Attachment 2 as 9 additional documentation is reviewed and/or considered." So -- 10 but is the commutation breakout listed? Did I miss it 11 somewhere?

12 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, I can't answer that 13 question. I'm not sure if my partner Kit Weitnauer can answer 14 that question --

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 MR. JOHNSON: -- off the top of his head.

17 So I don't know. This was prepared by Duff itself, 18 not by outside counsel.

19 THE COURT: All right. To the best --

20 MR. JOHNSON: I would have to get back to you.

21 THE COURT: Okay, but do you represent to the Court
22 that Duff, in connection -- did Mr. Pfeiffer, in connection 23 with forming his opinion and his work on it, consider any other 24 document or information provided by or on behalf of FGIC? And 25 I say "by or on behalf of" because if Lazard was FGIC's

1 advisor, if Lazard provided to Duff & Phelps information that 2 has not been disclosed, I want to know about that as well.

3 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, that is correct, what you 4 stated, that --

5 THE COURT: They did not?

6 MR. JOHNSON: -- I confirmed that and represent that 7 to the Court --

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. JOHNSON: -- that everything that was prepared or 10 given to Duff by FGIC has been disclosed.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 Mr. Weitnauer, did you want to add something?

13 MR. WEITNAUER: I just want to be clear, because I --

14 THE COURT: Just make your appearance.

15 MR. WEITNAUER: I'm sorry. I'm Kit Weitnauer. I'm 16 with Alston & Bird; one of Mike's partners.

17 You'll see on page 7 of Mr. Pfeiffer's report, he 18 references both an interview with Tim Travers, FGIC's CRO; an 19 interview with certain Lazard personnel. Those topics were 20 inquired into at the deposition --

21 THE COURT: All right.

22 MR. WEITNAUER: -- and he --

23 THE COURT: So there was no assertion of mediation
24 privilege --

25 MR. WEITNAUER: That's correct, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: -- with respect to any of the 2 communications?

3 MR. WEITNAUER: That's correct.

4 THE COURT: All right. Thank you very much.
5 Go ahead.

6 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, from our perspective, the 7 trustees have fully complied with the requirements of --

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 MR. JOHNSON: -- Rule 26(a)(2)(B), and the materials 10 have all been turned over that were considered by Duff. And 11 also, we do have a second expert witness, Your Honor: Dr. S.P.
12 Kothari. I don't think there's been any allegation that 13 there's been some incomplete disclosure --

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. JOHNSON: -- with respect of his expert report.
16 Your Honor, I think what this comes down to actually, 17 but it's not very clear, I don't think, from the 18 correspondence, is work papers. And I don't think -- and 19 honestly, Your Honor, work papers are encompassed within the 20 Rule 26(a)(2)(B) language which talks about documents and 21 materials, or data and materials, that are considered, which I 22 think has traditionally been understood to mean the sources 23 that provided basically the foundation upon which the 24 information -- or the report or opinion is based.

25 But in any event, Your Honor, while we have been clear

1 in our position that work papers aren't covered by that Rule,
2 we have turned over work papers. I brought today, Your Honor,
3 a stack. It's very hard to print them out, because it's 4 several Excel spreadsheets; but they're sitting there on the 5 table, and you can see them. Significant work papers have been 6 disclosed already. I note that we have provided information -- 7 we have identified them by Bates numbers this week -- to 8 counsel for the objectors.

9 Nonetheless, those work papers were not the subject of 10 any of the examination of Mr. Pfeiffer yesterday. We've not 11 been told, with any specificity, that there is anything 12 incomplete about those work papers. And Mr. Pfeiffer was not 13 asked whether there were any holes in what's been produced, or 14 anything else.

15 So, Your Honor, quite frankly, we --

16 THE COURT: So, when --

17 MR. JOHNSON: -- are at a loss to understand --

18 THE COURT: -- when you talk about this issue about 19 work papers, the Rule doesn't specifically address it. But the 20 reporter's note -- or the advisory committee note -- not 21 reporter's note -- talks about -- my takeaway from it is that 22 discovery is permitted about any alternative analyses, testing
23 methods or approaches to the issues on which the expert will be 24 testifying, whether or not the expert considered them in 25 forming the opinions expressed. And that seems to me to go to

1 what would ordinarily be work papers doesn't appear in the 2 report. But you're representing that work papers have been 3 produced and, if any more are identified, you'll produce them 4 as well?

5 MR. JOHNSON: Well, Your Honor, I think that we -- the 6 second part I think we might have a problem with. I mean, the 7 analysis, Your Honor, is very sophisticated. We have provided
8 what we consider to be the primary work papers. We don't know 9 what further information they might be looking for, but there 10 may be layers of information below that that we -- that have 11 not been produced. For example, there may be spreadsheets that 12 might feed into the base work paper documents that are 13 documents. And, Your Honor, quite honestly, producing that 14 would be very, very cumbersome. And again, we don't know if 15 there's --

16 THE COURT: It's actually pretty easy; you produce 17 worksheet -- Excel spreadsheets electronically; that's not very 18 cumbersome. But that's not the issue that I consider before me 19 today. What I consider before me today is really the issue of 20 whether FGIC and/or Lazard is required to disclose any 21 additional documents or information that would otherwise be 22 protected by the mediation privilege; that's what seems to me
23 to be framed by the letters. And I know that Ms. Eaton's 24 letter does address the work product issue, but I don't believe 25 that's properly framed before me at this point.

1 MR. JOHNSON: And, Your Honor, I can --

2 THE COURT: I don't want to get into --

3 MR. JOHNSON: I don't know why their work product --

4 THE COURT: Mr. Johnson, I don't want to get --

5 MR. JOHNSON: There's nothing to produce.

6 THE COURT: I don't want to get into it --

7 MR. JOHNSON: Okay.

8 THE COURT: -- further now, okay?

9 MR. JOHNSON: Understood, Your Honor. Understood, 10 Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right, let me hear from the 12 rehabilitator's counsel.

13 MR. SLACK: Good morning, Your Honor. Richard Slack
14 from Weil Gotshal, for the rehabilitator of FGIC.

15 And I just had one clarification which -- something 16 Your Honor had said, and that is that Lazard -- it's an 17 important distinction --

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. SLACK: -- for my client. But Lazard was retained
20 by Weil --

21 THE COURT: Right.

22 MR. SLACK: -- to work for the rehabilitator --

23 THE COURT: I stand corrected.

24 MR. SLACK: -- not for FGIC.

25 THE COURT: I stand corrected.

1 MR. SLACK: Well, and the reason it's important, Your 2 Honor, is that there's a lot of work that Lazard has done that 3 FGIC has not had access to, FGIC's management has not had 4 access to. FGIC's management doesn't direct Lazard. And so 5 it's not really the same as FGIC, dealing with Lazard.

6 What I can tell the Court, Your Honor, is that Lazard
7 did not provide any documents to the trustees, to the debtors.
8 And so the only document that I understand was at issue here 9 was a document that was actually prepared by FGIC, as 10 Mr. Sidman said, that was sent to the trustees and then handed 11 over.

12 I guess, in point of full disclosure, I would say that 13 Lazard did meet -- and I think this came out in the 14 deposition -- with representatives of Duff & Phelps, for an 15 hour and a half, roughly. My understanding is that, because 16 the -- some of the clients of Duff & Phelps had not signed a 17 confidentiality (sic), at the beginning of the meeting the 18 Lazard representatives said, 'We are not discussing anything
19 that's not public.' And I'd been told by counsel for Lazard 20 that in fact that's what happened; there was not any 21 information that was provided that wasn't public information.
22 And --

23 THE COURT: May I ask you this, Mr. Slack: Were you
24 at Mr. Pfeiffer's deposition?

25 MR. SLACK: I wasn't. What I understand -- and I'll

1 let somebody talk, but what I understand is that Mr. Pfeiffer, 2 who wasn't at that meeting, said that he could not identify -- 3 and again, I'll let somebody talk to it -- any information that 4 was not public, that was provided to Duff & Phelps. But again, 5 I'll let somebody who was at the deposition talk to it.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 Mr. Sidman, briefly --

8 MR. SIDMAN: Yeah. Just --

9 THE COURT: -- before I hear from Ms. Eaton.

10 MR. SIDMAN: Just to follow on what Mr. Slack just 11 said, I actually specifically asked the question to 12 Mr. Pfeiffer at the deposition yesterday: if he could identify 13 any nonpublic information that Duff & Phelps received from 14 Lazard in connection with the preparation of his report, and he 15 could not.

16 THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

17 Ms. Eaton?

18 MS. EATON: Good afternoon, Your -- or good morning,
19 Your Honor. Mary Eaton on behalf of the investors in the FGIC 20 wrapped trusts.

21 I have to confess to the Court, all of this is a 22 little confusing from our perspective. We were -- we certainly 23 were not aware, and nobody informed us, that the document at 24 issue was the only document that had been supplied by either 25 FGIC or its advisor Lazard. And frankly, it seemed somewhat

1 inconsistent with the facts --

2 THE COURT: We'd just been told by Mr. Slack that 3 Lazard is not FGIC's advisor; it's the rehabilitator's --

4 MS. EATON: I beg your pardon --

5 THE COURT: -- advisor.

6 MS. EATON: -- Your Honor. Yeah.

7 THE COURT: You don't dispute that, do you?

8 MS. EATON: I have no basis to --

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MS. EATON: -- dispute it --

11 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.

12 MS. EATON: -- Your Honor. I simply -- I misspoke.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 MS. EATON: What we do have -- leaving the work papers 15 issue aside, what we do have are certain indications that other 16 information, apart from the document at issue, was provided to 17 Duff & Phelps, including information that was not confidential.
18 The witness yesterday was asked a series of questions designed 19 to clarify what information was provided by whom and when, but 20 on several occasions was unable to answer those questions, 21 including because, for instance, he was not present at the 22 due -- initial due-diligence meeting with Duff & Phelps, that I 23 believe happened in April.

24 What the witness did testify to was that member -- and 25 I can pull out the testimony if the Court would find that

1 beneficial -- that while he was not at that meeting, members of 2 his team were there and that he did not know whether they had 3 any documents or notes of the meeting, one way or the other.

4 With respect to the provision of confidential --

5 THE COURT: Which meeting are you referring to?

6 MS. EATON: The due-diligence meeting that took place
7 between representatives of Duff & Phelps, representatives of 8 Lazard, and representatives of FGIC. I believe it was at the 9 beginning of April and it was -- there was an agenda; there was 10 a list of diligence items that were to be discussed in 11 connection with Duff & Phelps' analysis of the -- what was then 12 the proposed FGIC settlement agreement.

13 THE COURT: So do you have any evidence that any 14 nonpublic information was provided by Lazard at the meeting?

15 MS. EATON: The only evidence we have, Your Honor, is 16 the statement of Mr. Pfeiffer at paragraph 14 of his expert 17 report, where he says that --

18 THE COURT: Let me turn to it, okay? Hold on. Go 19 ahead.

20 MS. EATON: -- quote, "D&P was asked by the FGIC 21 trustees to advise them regarding D&P's assessment of the 22 reasonableness, risks and benefits of accepting the proposal,
23 in part, on confi" -- "based in part on confidential
24 information communicated by FGIC's chief restructuring officer
25 and Lazard, financial advisors to Weil Gotshal, counsel to the

1 New York Liquidation Bureau. D&P performed an independent 2 financial analysis to determine a reasonable range of the value
3 of projected payments to the FGIC insured trust, based on the 4 rehabilitation plan."

5 So the expert's report of the representative from Duff 6 & Phelps is stating, in our view, clearly here that their 7 analysis was based in part on confidential information that was 8 provided by FGIC and Lazard. But apart from that, I don't know 9 of anything, Your Honor. Most of these items, including the 10 document in question, was not identified to us; it was not 11 logged as privileged --

12 THE COURT: Well, that doesn't indicate --

13 MS. EATON: -- either by --

14 THE COURT: He doesn't say anything about document; it 15 says "information". So there may not be a document.

16 MS. EATON: There may or may not be, Your Honor; we 17 don't have any way of knowing, including based on the testimony
18 of Mr. Pfeiffer that I was referencing a moment ago. And it 19 could very well be that members of his team have documents, but 20 that we don't know; he could not say one way or the other.

21 So we're a little bit in the dark about this. There 22 are indications that there should be -- if there weren't 23 documents sent by FGIC or Lazard, that there was information 24 imparted by FGIC or Lazard that Duff & Phelps considered in 25 rendering its opinions and, in our submission, that

1 information -- we're entitled to discovery of that information,
2 as well as other information, in order to effectively cross-3 examine the trustee's expert with regard to the advice they got 4 on whether to approve the FGIC settlement agreement --

5 THE COURT: Well, did you --

6 MS. EATON: -- or not.

7 THE COURT: -- did you examine Mr. Pfeiffer about all 8 of the data analysis, summaries, whatever, that he considered 9 in forming his opinions?

10 MS. EATON: Well, two things, Your Honor: First, it 11 was my partner Mr. Baio, not myself, who --

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MS. EATON: -- who took that deposition. I don't know 14 that the witness was presented with every document we were --

15 THE COURT: I didn't ask whether he was presented with 16 every document.

17 MS. EATON: I realize that, Your Honor. I'm trying to 18 be responsive to the Court's question.

19 The witness was repeat -- I read the transcript last 20 night; the witness was repeatedly questioned about the 21 existence of documents that they either were -- that Duff &
22 Phelps was either supplied with or generated in the course 23 of --

24 THE COURT: Well, the issue isn't "reviewed"; the 25 issue is "considered in forming his opinions".

1 MS. EATON: Correct, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: You agree with that?

3 MS. EATON: I certainly do. And it's interesting --

4 THE COURT: So, frequently in a situation,
5 particularly where somebody starts out as a consulting expert,
6 you may get a ton of documents; it doesn't mean you considered 7 them in forming your opinions.

8 MS. EATON: That may well be the case in a great many 9 circumstances here, Your Honor, although I would point out that 10 there's one very significant issue, that bears directly on the 11 opinion of Duff & Phelps in this case, that we believe relates 12 to the work that they -- that Duff & Phelps did as a consulting 13 expert and is critical to our ability to challenge that expert 14 testimony, and that goes to Duff & Phelps' determination not to 15 ascribe any value to the representation and warranty claims 16 that FGIC had. According to the test -- we have not been 17 provided with any analysis of why Duff & Phelps made that 18 determination and gave zero value to those claims, claims that 19 I understand FGIC has itself stated are worth in excess of a 20 billion dollars.

21 According to the testimony, Duff & Phelps -- I could 22 get the precise page -- spent months and months analyzing these 23 claims and their value, and, oddly enough, not a single scrap 24 of paper has been --

25 THE COURT: That doesn't entitle you --

1 MS. EATON: -- supplied to us.

2 THE COURT: But whether -- we'll see whether that's 3 true or not; but assuming it is, you've got grist for cross-
4 examination of Mr. Pfeiffer at trial. What you don't have is a 5 basis to require FGIC to produce documents or information that 6 were not provided to Mr. Pfeiffer and which he considered in 7 preparing his opinion. I mean, your -- the problem with your 8 letter, frankly, is you're like a broken record, Ms. Eaton.
9 What you want to do is break into the mediation and find out 10 everything that happened in a confidential mediation. That 11 you're not going to do. Okay?

12 So you correctly recite in your letter many of the 13 applicable principles that the Court has to consider in 14 resolving this dispute, but you carry it well beyond the facts
15 that you have to support your arguments.

16 With respect to -- if there are --

17 Mr. Johnson, if Duff & Phelps considered documents or 18 information in connection with forming its opinions, it has to 19 be provided, okay? You've represented you've done that.
20 You've represented you've done that, and I have no reason to 21 believe that you haven't. And if there is additional 22 information that comes to light, you need to provide it, okay?

23 So Ms. Eaton points to page 8 of the report, the 24 Pfeiffer report, paragraph 14, and the sentence that begins 25 "Based in part on confidential information communicated by

1 FGIC's chief restructuring officer and Lazard, financial 2 advisors to Weil, Gotshal & Manges," et cetera, "D&P performed 3 an independent financial analysis."

4 So if there is confidential information that Duff &
5 Phelps received and considered in its analysis, it has to be 6 provided. I mean, it's -- that's the reality of it.

7 MR. JOHNSON: May I -- may I address that, Your Honor?

8 THE COURT: Yeah, go ahead.

9 I'll give you a chance, Ms. Eaton, to say some more,
10 but let me --

11 MR. JOHNSON: Yeah, I'll just stress this one issue, 12 Your Honor. Mr. Pfeiffer's report refers to confidential 13 information, and he used that word, Your Honor, because --

14 THE COURT: You have to go up to the microphone.

15 MR. JOHNSON: Oh, this one --

16 THE COURT: We're not -- we're not picking it up.

17 MR. JOHNSON: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

19 MR. JOHNSON: Mike Johnson again.

20 THE COURT: It's because you're tall is what Karen 21 said.

22 MR. JOHNSON: Mike Johnson again, Your Honor.

23 Mr. Pfeiffer's report at paragraph 14, which is what 24 Ms. Eaton cited to you, refers to confidential information 25 which I think -- I don't know if it's the same thing that Mr.

1 Slack, a nonpublic. The reason Mr. Pfeiffer referred to 2 confidential information was because FGIC required Mr. Pfeiffer
3 and his firm to sign an NDA, so in an abundance of caution, he 4 treated at least some of the information as confidential. It 5 refers solely to the existence of an NDA, not any 6 characterization as public or nonpublic.

7 THE COURT: I'm sure, Mr. Johnson, this issue is going 8 to come up again at trial, if not sooner, so head it off at the 9 pass. Go back to Mr. Pfeiffer and his people at Duff & Phelps
10 and confirm again because I'm sure, if he testifies at trial, 11 he's going to be asked in cross-examination about it. So 12 what's -- you know, get some clarity and communicate with Ms.
13 Eaton about that.

14 MR. JOHNSON: Your Honor, for the record, I have gone
15 back again, not just to Mr. Pfeiffer but to his team members 16 and confirmed --

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. JOHNSON: -- that we have turned over all 19 documents considered.

20 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Eaton, I interrupted you, 21 so is there anything else you wanted to add?

22 MS. EATON: Just briefly, Your Honor. We were told 23 before the exchange of letters took place that documents --
24 nonprivileged documents that had been relied upon by the expert 25 had been produced to us, and at the deposition yesterday of Mr.

1 Pfeiffer, the witness was repeatedly instructed to confine his 2 answers to information that he relied upon from Lazard and FGIC
3 and whomever else. If there's confusion here about whether 4 documents that the expert considered, which is a broader --

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 MS. EATON: -- universe of documents than those he 7 relied upon, you know, respectfully, it's -- that is as a 8 result of the instructions given to the witness and what we 9 were told previously, if indeed everything that the expert had 10 considered in rendering his opinions, including information
11 that either received or generated in his role as a consulting 12 expert were considered in rendering his opinions, our view is 13 simply that it needs to be produced and --

14 THE COURT: Let me ask you this. First off, can 15 somebody confirm whether he was limited to testifying yesterday 16 about information upon which he relied as opposed to 17 considered --

18 MR. SIDMAN: Yes. If I can --

19 THE COURT: -- because the Rule does draw a 20 distinction -- I mean, that certainly the advisory committee
21 note clearly draws a distinction --

22 MR. SIDMAN: Your Honor --

23 THE COURT: -- between considered and relied.

24 MR. SIDMAN: -- I -- you're absolutely right, Your 25 Honor, and -- this is Howard Sidman from Jones Day. I gave the

1 instruction, Your Honor, at the deposition yesterday, and I
2 used the word "rely". So there's no reason to -- and I was -- 3 it was a mistake on my part and --

4 THE COURT: Here is what I -- with respect to this 5 issue, confer with Ms. Eaton, yeah, after the conclusion of the 6 hearing. If she wishes -- you know, it seems to me there's two 7 ways to deal with this. You can either, if she's willing -- if 8 she's satisfied with this, get a declaration from Mr. Pfeiffer
9 that addresses the issue of what they considered. And if you 10 do that and the answer is, there's nothing other than the one 11 document, I'm going to allow Ms. Eaton to decide whether she 12 wants to resume the Pfeiffer deposition for no more than an 13 hour because it's really just this one point; it shouldn't even 14 take that long. But she's entitled because I think, to the 15 extent that you instructed that he address -- that he identify 16 only things they relied on, I think that was not consistent 17 with the Rule. Let me just put it that way.

18 MR. SIDMAN: I understand, Your Honor, and that was --

19 THE COURT: Okay. So I'm going to leave that for the 20 two of you, all of you, to see if you can resolve.

21 MR. SIDMAN: Yeah.

22 THE COURT: And if necessary, Ms. Eaton can resume the 23 deposition on that point.

24 MR. SIDMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 MR. SIDMAN: I will say though that there was at least 2 two hours of examination on this particular issue of the 3 meeting. So there's been an opportunity to have this 4 disclosure.

5 THE COURT: Well --

6 MR. SIDMAN: And we'll figure out the consideration 7 versus relied issue.

8 THE COURT: -- let's get some clarity on this issue.

9 MR. SIDMAN: Yes.

10 THE COURT: All right. Anything else anybody wants to 11 add quickly?

12 Ms. Eaton.

13 MS. EATON: A question, Your Honor, two questions.
14 We'd like some guidance about the -- how to tee up the issue of 15 the Lazard deposition.

16 THE COURT: Well, first, let me -- you can't. That -- 17 I'm teeing up that issue -- that I'm resolving. Discovery
18 closed. You had your chance if you wanted to depose Lazard, 19 you thought you -- if you thought you were entitled to. You 20 had your chance to do it so I'm not altering the schedule that 21 was previously approved. So that resolves that issue.

22 MS. EATON: May I say, Your Honor, I -- before the 23 close of discovery, I spoke with counsel for Lazard who 24 themselves suggested to me that we should await the Duff &
25 Phelps deposition, and if the Lazard deposition we still felt

1 it was necessary after that, that we could discuss it at that 2 time.

3 THE COURT: Well, that's good. I'm glad you're 4 discussing it with Lazard and its counsel, but nobody raised 5 the issue with me. I set a discovery schedule; that's the 6 discovery schedule. I'm not altering it. So that's the answer
7 with respect to the Lazard.

8 MS. EATON: Very well, Your Honor. And with respect
9 to the separate issue of the work papers that Your Honor 10 indicated was not right --

11 THE COURT: That issue is not sufficiently presented 12 to me at this point. Mr. Johnson has represented that some 13 volume of work papers were provided. You need to confer with 14 him further. Hopefully, you'll resolve -- be able to resolve 15 this issue without further court intervention.

16 MS. EATON: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. So, pending before the Court
18 is a dispute between the objecting partying, and the objecting 19 parties are identified in Ms. Eaton's July 24th, 2013 letter.
20 It's a dispute between the objecting parties on the one hand
21 and FGIC and the FGIC trustees on the other hand concerning 22 whether FGIC and Lazard must produce additional documents and 23 permit the deposition of Lazard in matters that are otherwise 24 protected by the mediation privilege. The Court received and 25 reviewed letter briefs from the parties last night and

1 scheduled a hearing for this morning.

2 With respect to the letters, I'm referring to -- all 3 three letters are dated July 24, 2013. It's a letter from 4 Ms. Eaton at Willkie Farr, a letter from Mr. Sidman at Jones
5 Day, and a letter from Mr. Johnson at Alston & Bird.

6 During the deposition of Allen Pfeiffer, an expert
7 within retained by the FGIC trustees, FGIC produced a one-page
8 document bearing the legend "FGIC-ResCap-trusts commutation 9 break-out." It appears that this document was considered by 10 Pfeiffer in forming his expert opinions and in preparing his 11 expert report.

12 "An expert must provide discovery of the opinions to 13 be offered by the expert and the development, foundation, and 14 basis of those opinions. Communications the expert had with 15 anyone other than the parties' counsel about the opinions also 16 must be disclosed.

17 "Discovery is permitted without any alternative 18 analyses, testing methods or approaches to the issues on which 19 is expert will be testifying whether the expert considered them
20 in forming the opinions expressed. Discovery is also permitted 21 to identify facts or data provided to the expert and that the 22 expert considered in forming the opinions expressed. Discovery
23 is also permitted to identify any assumptions that the expert 24 relied upon in forming the opinions to be expressed.

25 "Such information is discoverable, even if it results

1 from an attorney-client privileged communication. But where 2 the communication comes from counsel for the party on whose 3 behalf the expert will testify, this exception is limited to 4 those assumptions that the expert actually did rely on in 5 forming the opinions to be expressed."

6 The issue here is whether Pfeiffer "considered" any 7 other documents or information provided by FGIC or on behalf of 8 FGIC in forming his opinions. If the one-page commutation 9 break-out is the only such document that Pfeiffer considered, 10 no other documents must be produced. If Pfeiffer considered 11 other FGIC documents which had been withheld from production, 12 one of two things must happen. If the documents and 13 information are disclosed, Pfeiffer may testify at trial. If 14 the documents are not disclosed, Pfeiffer may not testify at 15 trial. The mediation privilege remains a proper basis on which 16 FGIC may refuse production of documents or information that are 17 properly the subject of the mediation privilege.

18 Pfeiffer was originally selected as a consulting 19 expert rather than as a testifying expert. It is typical for 20 consulting experts to be given access to information that may 21 not be provided to testifying experts, but if the information 22 is provided to a testifying expert who has considered it in 23 forming expert opinions, information must be disclosed or the 24 expert may not testify.

25 Pfeiffer's report includes "attachment to" with the

1 heading "list of documents considered". The commutation
2 break-out does not appear to be on the list, but Pfeiffer's
3 expert report in paragraph 11 states that, "I reserve the right
4 to update the list as additional documentation is reviewed 5 and/or considered."

6 During the deposition, at or prior to the deposition, 7 it was disclosed that the one-page commutation break-out was 8 considered by Mr. Pfeiffer and was provided at the time of the 9 deposition.

10 The question now is whether Pfeiffer considered other 11 documents or information provided by or on behalf of FGIC that 12 have not been disclosed through document production or 13 deposition testimony. If the answer is no, then Pfeiffer may 14 testify at trial. If the answer is yes, then Pfeiffer may not 15 testify at trial unless the additional documents or information 16 are disclosed.

17 The Court concludes that by permitting disclosure of 18 the one-page commutation break-out, FGIC has not provided a 19 subject matter waiver of any applicable privilege including 20 mediation privilege. This is not a situation where FGIC is 21 seeking to use an assertion of privilege as a sword and a 22 shield. Pfeiffer is testifying on behalf of the FGIC trustees,
23 not on behalf of FGIC or the FGIC rehabilitator. Properly
24 considered, the issue here is whether Pfeiffer may be permitted 25 to provide expert testimony at trial. That is the issue and

1 the only issue the Court needs to resolve.

2 Since the parties were unable to reach agreement on 3 the form of the stipulation, I will not enter an order based on 4 the stipulation; however, by my ruling today, the Court 5 concludes that FGIC has not waived its mediation privilege with 6 respect to any other documents than the one page that was 7 provided. The record will be so ordered, and no separate order 8 will be entered based on the ruling.

9 All right. Let me go back to the work product -- the 10 work papers issue. With respect to the work papers, I expect 11 that you'll cooperate with Ms. Eaton and -- so that you can 12 assure her that the work papers have been provided to the 13 extent that, as I indicated, discovery is permitted, disclosure 14 is required with respect to any alternative analyses, testing
15 methods or approaches to the issues on which the expert will be 16 testifying.

17 So if there are work papers that include such 18 alternative analyses, testing methods or approaches to the 19 issues on which the expert will be testifying, they must be 20 produced. To the extent that the work papers reflect drafts of 21 the expert report that has been provided, doesn't the Rule -- 22 the Rule was amended in 2010 to make clear that the drafts
23 don't have to be provided. So if the work papers reflect 24 drafts of the report, they don't have to be provided. If they 25 reflect alternative analyses, et cetera, that are not included

1 in the report, they do have to be provided.

2 That's going to be the Court's disposition and ruling,
3 and the transcript is so ordered.

4 Okay. We're going to take a ten-minute recess before
5 I start the regular calendar.

6 MR. JOHNSON: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I know you're taking a recess.
8 I don't think there's any other ResCap matters on this morning;
9 is that correct?

10 THE COURT: There are. We're back tomorrow.

11 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: That -- I'll leave that to my 12 partners.

13 THE COURT: Leave that to your partners for tomorrow.

14 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.
15 Appreciate it.

16 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Every day seems to be a ResCap 17 day.

18 (Whereupon these proceedings were concluded at 9:48 AM)
